Campus celebrates Valentine’s Day

Festivities offered by the University on Feb. 14 helped students to celebrate the much anticipated Valentine’s Day. The events began at 10 a.m. in the University Center for the annual Create-a-Plush event. Students crowded around the student information booth in order to get the animal that they wanted to create. Another annual event that students look forward to is the Valentine’s Day dinner in the Cafeteria. Decorative balloons and a buffet offered a refreshing change of pace to the usual service offered by the cafe. Students also could buy presents for family and friends from the bookstore.

Students show off their Create-a-Plush pets to friends and peers. Create-a-Plush is an event that students look forward to year after year.

Displays throughout the front section of the bookstore offer students different gifts to purchase for friends and family members.
