The seventh-ranked UNCP baseball team hit a PBC roadblock on the march, with games March 26 and 27, and dropping the first two of their three game set with No. 22 Columbus State before re- covering to win the finale.

In the opener, the Braves found themselves in a close game at the end of two, but found themselves on the wrong side of a 10-9 bombout by Columbus State’s Thomas Campbell, as the hosts got two home runs offensively.

By Nick Phillips
Sport Editor

Senior pitcher Brad Bridgeman ral led the way as four of his seven batters faced off 16 consecutive runs at one point.

The seventh-ranked UNCP baseball team obliterated conference foe Barton 22-5 on the road on March 22.

By Curtis Brooks
Sports Writer

UNCP senior Keith Whitman,...