Theatre production will be the widely popular story of ‘Romeo and Juliet.’

The infamous story about two young teenagers in love has been told in many various ways since William Shakespeare wrote it. The production will follow the tragic relationship of Romeo and Juliet.

The Russian National Ballet Theatre was founded in Moscow in the late 1980s. The institution has over 50 dancers with a wide range of experiences. It was founded by graduates from Russian choreography schools in Moscow and St. Petersburg. The main goal is to bring in $1,500 after all-ready raising and collecting over $1,000 in sponsorships.
