UNCP senior Josh Bagley throws a pitch in his complete-game, shutout victory in the NCAA Southeast Regional Championship on May 21.

By Nick Phillips
Editor

A hot shot of the bat by UNCP senior Josh Micknery echoed around the Cayhawa third baseman and scored junior Aaron Parnell, giving the No. 4 Braves a 4-1 lead over No. 19 Catawba in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Southeast Regional on May 20.

The win pushed the Braves into the regional semis and sent them 11-15 in the record book.

Offensively, senior Josh Mickens drove in two runs as part of this 2-for-3 night, while junior Ethan Maso also added two hits and an RBI.

Lewis picked a tough moment for the final loss of the season, as he gave up two runs on four hits and two walks in just 1.2-3 innings.

The loss ended a record-breaking streak for the team, whose 44-12 record included an NCAA-record 30 wins and first-ever Peach Belt Conference Championships.

UNCP had 11 runners stranded on the bases, and their first four at-bats went 1-1-0-0.

“Levitt threw fantastic inning,” beginning with Whitman giving the Braves the lead for good in the top of the third inning.

Coker added the final run of the game on three-hits.

Offensively, senior Whitman gave the Braves the lead for good in the bottom of the third when he sent his 11th home run of the year over the left field fence.

Aaron Parnell added two RBIs along with his 2-for-3 hitting line.

UNCP head coach Paul O’Neil said.

Bagley, hitter J.J. Williams is hit by a pitch in UNCP’s 7-3 loss to Mount Olive in the NCAA Southeastern Regional May 21.

Braves slip up against Mt. Olive in third round

By Nick Phillips
Editor

The UNCP baseball

By Nick Phillips
Editor

Braves score late run, beat Catawba in NCAA Regional quarterfinals

By Nick Phillips
Editor

Senior Josh Bagley threw a complete-game, shutout victory in UNCP’s opening-round win over Mount Olive in the NCAA Southeastern Regional.

Braves NCAA run ends in round four

By Nick Phillips
Editor

A hot shot of the bat by UNCP senior Josh Mick-