ACE-sponsored trip to Wilmington postponed

The Association of Campus Entertainment (ACE) and the Student Involvement and Leadership committee Pembroke Expanded said they are possibly considering a trip to Wilmington this year.

Members of Pembroke Expanded said they are possibly considering a trip to Wilmington this year. Sasha Millington, chair of Pembroke Expanded, said everyone was patient about the situation.

“I’m gonna try to give the student body what they want so everybody can be happy,” she said.

As far as other events are concerned, ACE is planning more off campus events for students to attend. To obtain more information about becoming a member of ACE, students can attend their weekly meetings on Mondays at 4 p.m. in UC room 213.

Shogun Hibachi Buffet and Grill located in Lumberton offered 10 percent off the meal cost for students at their restaurant.

Students were able to obtain full refunds through the Office of Student Information about becoming a member of ACE, students can attend their weekly meetings on Mondays at 4 p.m. in UC room 213.

Sasha Millington, chair of Pembroke Expanded, said everyone was patient about the situation. She is currently a junior and this is her second year working with ACE, and her first year being chair of her committee.

Millington said she enjoyed the on and off campus events that ACE held and that she has been attending them since her freshman year.
