By Jared Leblanc

The Lady Braves Golf team was overwhelming in their season opening tournament, the Falcon Cup, as which three members placed in the top 10. The team placed first in the overall standings. The Black and Gold placed first out of the nine teams with a cumulative score of 609 edging second place Newberry College. The win was the Braves’ first of the season.

Junior Zach Bayless and freshman Steven Merritt, with a time of 27:33.9, followed by Sophomore Pardon Ndhlovu with a time of 27:33.9, finished in the top-10 as both captured new personal bests while Schroll’s 26:11.8 time placed them in the top-30. Shauna Walor, also a sophomore, finished the tournament in a tie for eighth place, shooting a score of 154 (+15). Freshman Dana Watkins rounded out the Black and Gold with a score of 160 (+20) tying for 13th place. Kelly Summer finished as the non-scoring member of the Braves with a score of 168 (+28) tying for 25th place.

Alyssa Mooney and Jenn Carney competed as individuals in the tournament and finished with scores of 166 (+26) and 168 (+28), respectively.

The Great American Cross Country Challenge on Oct. 15 in Charlotte.

By Nick Phillips

By Jared Leblanc

By Nick Phillips

By Jared Leblanc

The Lady Braves Golf team was overwhelming in their season opening tournament, the Falcon Cup, as which three members placed in the top 10. The team placed first in the overall standings. The Black and Gold placed first out of the nine teams with a cumulative score of 609 edging second place Newberry College. The win was the Braves’ first of the season.

Junior Zach Bayless and freshman Steven Merritt, with a time of 27:33.9, followed by Sophomore Pardon Ndhlovu with a time of 27:33.9, finished in the top-10 as both captured new personal bests while Schroll’s 26:11.8 time placed them in the top-30. Shauna Walor, also a sophomore, finished the tournament in a tie for eighth place, shooting a score of 154 (+15). Freshman Dana Watkins rounded out the Black and Gold with a score of 160 (+20) tying for 13th place. Kelly Summer finished as the non-scoring member of the Braves with a score of 168 (+28) tying for 25th place.

Alyssa Mooney and Jenn Carney competed as individuals in the tournament and finished with scores of 166 (+26) and 168 (+28), respectively.

The Great American Cross Country Challenge on Oct. 15 in Charlotte.

By Nick Phillips

By Jared Leblanc

By Nick Phillips

By Jared Leblanc

The Lady Braves Golf team was overwhelming in their season opening tournament, the Falcon Cup, as which three members placed in the top 10. The team placed first in the overall standings. The Black and Gold placed first out of the nine teams with a cumulative score of 609 edging second place Newberry College. The win was the Braves’ first of the season.

Junior Zach Bayless and freshman Steven Merritt, with a time of 27:33.9, followed by Sophomore Pardon Ndhlovu with a time of 27:33.9, finished in the top-10 as both captured new personal bests while Schroll’s 26:11.8 time placed them in the top-30. Shauna Walor, also a sophomore, finished the tournament in a tie for eighth place, shooting a score of 154 (+15). Freshman Dana Watkins rounded out the Black and Gold with a score of 160 (+20) tying for 13th place. Kelly Summer finished as the non-scoring member of the Braves with a score of 168 (+28) tying for 25th place.

Alyssa Mooney and Jenn Carney competed as individuals in the tournament and finished with scores of 166 (+26) and 168 (+28), respectively.

The Great American Cross Country Challenge on Oct. 15 in Charlotte.