UNCP tallied two goals within the opening 15 minutes of action to move past home-standing Carson-Newman on Sept. 28.

Junior Rebecca Womack opened the scoring, heading a mis-placed ball off a corner kick into the back of the net just 12:25 into the game.

Less than two minutes later, sophomore Anna Svensson moved up to aim right at the upper right corner of the net and scored from 10 feet out. Senior Faye Corbett picked up an assist on Svensson’s goal.

At the 38 minute mark, Carson-Newman answered back with Tennille Howard’s goal to the left corner off an assist from Andrea Sauvik. The Carson-Newman goal stopped UNCP freshman goalkeeper Britney Bennett’s consecutive scoreless minutes streak at just over 127.

Bennett finished with five saves in the game, as the Lady Braves out shot Carson-Newman 13-8 as both teams tallied 11 fouls in the contest.

“We started off strong in the first 30 minutes of action, but once Carson-Newman scored, the momentum shifted,” UNCP head coach Laura Anderson said.

“After halftime our heads were back in the game, and we were able to play composed despite the continuing back-and-forth action for the rest of the game,” Anderson concluded.

The Lady Braves improved to 7-1-1 with their fourth consecutive win, while Carson-Newman dropped to 3-5-0 with the loss.
