By Nick Phillips
Sports Editor
The UNCP men’s golf team finished in second place behind the efforts of junior Jordan Walor in a strong showing on Oct. 4 and 5 at the Myrtle Beach Intercollegiate tournament.

The Braves finished with a total score of 592 over two days, action, coming seven shots short of champion Coker College.

Walar finished with a total score of 143 during the two-day event. His -1 score total score of 143 during the collegiate. UNCP junior Jonathan McCurry finished in fourth place individually, with a 144 score after shooting even par in both of his rounds to come out one shot short of also landing a spot in the playoff. Junior Scott Lambert’s total of 153 (+7) over the two days tied him for the 17th spot overall.

Junior Scott Colley and Carson Lanier finished off the UNCP scoring with scores of 154 (+10) and 153 (+11), respectively. After the first round, Walor sat in first place after a two-under round, as the UNCP team emerged as tournament winner.

McCurry finished day one action in third place, while Lambert’s score of 79 (+7) gave him a tie for 30th. Lanier and Colley both shot rounds of 82.

The tournament was played at the Sea Trail Resort in Sunset Beach, N.C., and was hosted by Lenoir-Rhyne University.

The UNCP men’s golf team finishes out its fall portion of the schedule on Oct. 19-19 when they travel to compete in the Will Wilson Southeast Preview, hosted by Belmont Abbey.

By Nick Phillips
Sports Editor
UNCP senior golfer Karja Dammann’s runner-up finish paced the Lady Braves to another strong showing at the Myrtle Beach Intercollegiate tournament in Sunset Beach, N.C., on Oct. 4 and 5, with a second place finish in the tournament.

The Lady Braves have a tournament victory and a runner-up finishes this season in their three tournaments after their finishes at the Sea Trail Resort.

UNCP finished with a team score of 633 over the two-day event, 19 shots off first place Tarleton State’s score of 614.

Tarelton State golfer Carla Cooper finished eight shots better than the competition with a 146 (+2) score for the tournament. Dammann shot a 142 (+4) total of 154 (+12) for the two days.

Following Dammann, freshmen Kelly Sumner and Meghan Moore finished tied for 12th, with a 151 (+15) score for the tournament. Watson finished with an overall score of 159 (+19) (+19) for third place for the first round where she shot a five-over.

A pair of UNCP sophomores finished tied for 12th, as Meghan Moore and Shauna Walar both carded scores of 161 (+17) for the two days. Walor shot an opening round 80 before a second day score of 81, while Moore’s first round of 83 was followed by a second round score of 78.

Finishing off the Lady Braves’ scoring, freshman Kelly Sumner finished tied 19th with a 164 (+20) total for the tournament. Watson, with 166 (-8) total, was the leader-board in the top-10 after their opening-round scores.

UNCP women’s golf team finishes in fall portion of the schedule on Oct. 19-18 when they travel to compete in the Patsy Brannen Invitational hosted by Catawba College.

The UNCP men’s and women’s cross country teams held strong showings, this time in Charlotte at the Queens University-hosted Royals Cross Country Challenge on Oct. 15.

The races featured teams from NCAA Divisi- ons I, II and III, as well as having teams from the Na- tional Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) in the women’s race.

The men finished 16th out of the 22 team field, while the women finished 18th of 21 teams.

For the men, sophomore Pardon Ndhlovu matched his school record time with a 27:40.4 time. Junior Zach Bayless followed with a 27:58.6 time. Senior Cameron Clancy’s 28:16.4 time gave him 167th place and sophomore Blair Long crossed the finish line with a 28:16.4 time.

For the women, senior Catherine Rendleman finished second in UNCP history at 20:06.4 as Meghan Moore and Shauna Walar both carded scores of 161 (+17) for the two days. Walor shot an opening round 80 before a second day score of 81, while Moore’s first round of 83 was followed by a second round score of 78.

Finishing off the Lady Braves’ scoring, freshman Kelly Sumner finished tied 19th with a 164 (+20) total for the tournament. Watson, with 166 (-8) total, was the leader-board in the top-10 after their opening-round scores.

UNCP women’s golf team finishes in fall portion of the schedule on Oct. 19-18 when they travel to compete in the Patsy Brannen Invitational hosted by Catawba College.