By Nick Phillips

Volleyball

THE PIN EN NEED LE VOLLEYBALL OCTOBER 27, 2011

By Jonathan Byam

Sports Editor

The UNCP volleyball team won their second straight match against Armstrong Atlantic with a hard fought 3-2 victory over the Knights. With the win, the Lady Braves are now 18-6 overall and 6-4 in Peach Belt Conference action.

The Lady Braves and Armstrong Atlantic battled hard in every set, with the Lady Braves winning the last two sets 25-18 and 25-12 to close out the match. Armstrong Atlantic led 21-19 in the first set before the Lady Braves finally broke through with a set point and a kill from Senior Ashley Reboke to grab the set win. In the second set, Armstrong Atlantic started off strong, leading 14-8, but the Lady Braves battled back to grab the set win on a four point run from Senior Rebecca Morgan to grab the second set win.

In the third set, Armstrong Atlantic led 12-8, but the Lady Braves battled back with a nine point run before Armstrong Atlantic was able to round out the set 25-18.

In the fourth set, Armstrong Atlantic led 18-15 before the Lady Braves battled back with a five point run before Armstrong Atlantic was able to grab the set win 25-21.

The Lady Braves and Armstrong Atlantic battled back and forth in the fifth set before Armstrong Atlantic was able to grab set point and a kill from Rebecca Morgan to grab the set win, 15-12.

The Lady Braves are now 6-4 in Peach Belt Conference action and have won their last three matches. They will be back in action on Wednesday, October 26 against Flagler in one of the closest matches of the season.

Lady Braves silence Fayetteville State

By Byrd Brooks

Asst. Sports Editor

The Lady Braves volleyball team defeated regional rival Fayetteville State in straight sets today and were able to grab their first win of the season.

The Lady Braves defeated the Pirates 25-18, 25-20 and 25-16 to grab the win. The Lady Braves were not phased by the visiting team and were able to grab the win behind Senior Rebecca Morgan who ended the match with a .500 hitting percentage. She also led the Lady Braves with 17 kills.

Senior A shlyn Rebok finished with 33 assists and hit against Fayetteville State.

Senior Chelsea Phillips finished with 30 kills and hit against Fayetteville State.

Senior Rebecca Morgan finished with 11 kills and hit again against Fayetteville State.

U NCP junior A shlyn Rebok (No. 10) sets a ball during the win against Fayetteville State. Rebok finished with 33 of the Lady Braves' 36 assists.

Lady Braves silence Fayetteville State