Upperclassmen ready to reclaim PBC ladder

By Nick Philips

Last season was one to remember for the UNCP men’s basketball team. A program-best 18 wins, a remarkable run to their first Peach Belt Conference Tournament Championship game appearance, and their first trip to the NCAA Division II Southeast Regional Tournament all helped cement 2010-2011 into one of the most successful seasons in UNCP basketball history.

But that’s just what last season is for Marcus Heath.

“Last season is over and done,” Miller said.

But the return of 10 juniors and seniors from last season, thought to be obvously in high in and around the English E. Jones Center.

Upperclassmen presence

Few, if any, could have predicted the 2011-2012 roster for the Braves, easily the largest number of seniors in Miller’s tenure in Pembroke, which is set to take off for year four when UNCP’s regular-season schedule at No.1-ranked UNC-Chapel Hill on Oct. 28.

Three of the four seniors were on the roster the last time the Braves played in the Tar Heels back in 2008 - Marcus Heath, Nate Priest and Miguel Starkey. Heath, as well as Jason Smith, who is now entering his second season as a graduate assistant, has the opportunity to do that," he added.

Easing the transition

Senior Marcus Heath averaged 5.5 points per game last season and will look to produce scoring numbers similar to his first two years in Pembroke this year.

Heath

Senior Marcus Heath averaged 5.5 points per game last season and will look to produce scoring numbers similar to his first two years in Pembroke this year.

By Nick Philips

Last season was one to remember for the UNCP men’s basketball team. A program-best 18 wins, a remarkable run to their first Peach Belt Conference Tournament Championship game appearance, and their first trip to the NCAA Division II Southeast Regional Tournament all helped cement 2010-2011 into one of the most successful seasons in UNCP basketball history.

But that’s just what last season is for Marcus Heath.

“Last season is over and done,” Miller said.

But the return of 10 juniors and seniors from last season, thought to be obviously in high in and around the English E. Jones Center.

Upperclassmen presence

Few, if any, could have predicted the 2011-2012 roster for the Braves, easily the largest number of seniors in Miller’s tenure in Pembroke, which is set to take off for year four when UNCP’s regular-season schedule at No.1-ranked UNC-Chapel Hill on Oct. 28.

Three of the four seniors were on the roster the last time the Braves played in the Tar Heels back in 2008 - Marcus Heath, Nate Priest and Miguel Starkey. Heath, as well as Jason Smith, who is now entering his second season as a graduate assistant, has the opportunity to do that," he added.

Easing the transition

Senior Marcus Heath averaged 5.5 points per game last season and will look to produce scoring numbers similar to his first two years in Pembroke this year.

Heath

Senior Marcus Heath averaged 5.5 points per game last season and will look to produce scoring numbers similar to his first two years in Pembroke this year.

By Nick Philips

Last season was one to remember for the UNCP men’s basketball team. A program-best 18 wins, a remarkable run to their first Peach Belt Conference Tournament Championship game appearance, and their first trip to the NCAA Division II Southeast Regional Tournament all helped cement 2010-2011 into one of the most successful seasons in UNCP basketball history.

But that’s just what last season is for Marcus Heath.

“Last season is over and done,” Miller said.

But the return of 10 juniors and seniors from last season, thought to be obviously in high in and around the English E. Jones Center.

Upperclassmen presence

Few, if any, could have predicted the 2011-2012 roster for the Braves, easily the largest number of seniors in Miller’s tenure in Pembroke, which is set to take off for year four when UNCP’s regular-season schedule at No.1-ranked UNC-Chapel Hill on Oct. 28.

Three of the four seniors were on the roster the last time the Braves played in the Tar Heels back in 2008 - Marcus Heath, Nate Priest and Miguel Starkey. Heath, as well as Jason Smith, who is now entering his second season as a graduate assistant, has the opportunity to do that," he added.

Easing the transition

Senior Marcus Heath averaged 5.5 points per game last season and will look to produce scoring numbers similar to his first two years in Pembroke this year.

Heath

Senior Marcus Heath averaged 5.5 points per game last season and will look to produce scoring numbers similar to his first two years in Pembroke this year.