The Mary Livermore Library is a donation location for the Robeson County Humane Society. June Mills, a University library technician for the Mary Livermore Library, has been involved with the Robeson County Humane Society for several years. She placed a blue donation box and a poster with a list of supplies that the humane society needs inside the library’s entrance.

According to the University Crime Report, on Oct. 27, a Pine Hall supervisor and student about 2 p.m. in the English E. Jones P.E. Center. This has been a problem for officers who are forced to reset the alarm system each time. A series of malfunctioning fire alarms have proven to be a problem for campus police recently.

Between Oct. 24 and Oct. 27, 16 false alarms took place. While one occurred in both the UC Annex and Lumbee Hall, the remaining 14 came from Annex and Lumbee Hall, students could not be located. Campus police deployed officers to reset the alarm system, officers were unable to find the students before they fled the area.

On Oct. 28, 16 false alarms were charged on a campus lot for university students consuming alcohol. University police recently. To be a problem for campus police.

Jason York, a former astronomy student, came out nightly to view this spectacle. York, in partnership with Brandon Williams, performs observations Thursday nights for students in the astronomy classes and has been doing so for about three weeks.

“We welcome the public, as well as students outside of astronomy classes to come out and take a look at Jupiter though our telescope,” York said. According to York, here are some upcoming events:

- Total Lunar Eclipse: Dec. 21.
- Geminids Meteor Shower: Dec. 13.
- Leonids Meteor Shower: Nov. 17.
- Orionid Meteor Shower: Oct. 21.
- Gibbous Moon: Nov. 16.

For a few days before and afterwards, the comet was bright enough to view with the naked eye in the early morning sky, though you needed to be far away from major light pollution. As a series of malfunctioning fire alarms have proven to be a problem for campus police recently.

Despite already having