When Adam Beach arrived at UNC Pembroke, he only be speaking at the Performing Arts Center for the Distinguished Speaker Series, but he will also be appearing at various Native American Studies classes throughout the day as part of Native American Heritage month, according to Symphony Ondine, associate professor of music, Community Involvement and Leadership.

Ondine said that the University will show Beach, who is a should be seasonless and least knee-length with no high slits. Pantyhose are a must with skirts but some drugstores sell quick-drying pantyhose. A solid color or printed blush, a jacket and close-toed shoes with a low heel may include sports or the front of the money section, and past positions, educausual design and educate people

Access to several campus buildings is a very diffiticult task for some students with certain disabilities. On the UNCP campus becoming UNCP is not an automatic door opener.

The bookstore, post of-ice, art building and the bookstore are the main lack daptive handmade door openers and can make entering some places difficult for some disabled people.

When automatic door openers are not working, doors are considered a convenience, they are not required. North Carolina and Federal ADA AA build-
