The UNCP women’s basketball team surrendered 28 turnovers on the way to a 77-68 loss to Wingate University on Nov. 22 inside the Cannon Complex.

In a back and forth game, the Lady Braves controlled the first half and led 37-34, thanks in part to 10 fast-break points off 15 Wingate turnovers.

The second half was dominated by Wingate as they outscored UNCP and held a lead as high as 13 points.

Junior forward Courtney Bolton recorded a career-high 20 points, while also total rebounds despite surrendering Washington led all scorers with a

In a nonconference bout against Asst. Sports Editor

B y Curti s Brooks

A sst. Sports Editor

The loss snapped the Black and Gold’s seven game winning streak on Nov. 19.

The Commons at Pembroke sets a new standard in student living. Just a few steps away from UNC Pembroke, life at The Commons is ideal for learning, while high-speed Internet and recreational facilities provided the lifestyle you’re looking for.

Located at the Pine Needles December 1, 2011

The Lady Braves finished with 12 points, ending the game with 12 points, and five steals after playing the entire 40 minute game.

The Lady Braves were led by senior guard DeDe Cotton, who had a game-high 21 points to go along with four rebounds and three assists.

Junior forward Courtney Bolton recorded a career-high 20 points, while also total rebounds.

DeDe Cotton led all scorers with a

The second half was dominated by Wingate as they outscored UNCP and held a lead as high as 13 points. The Black and Gold outrebounded the Lady Bulldogs’ 44.1 percent, but Wingate outrebounded the Black and Gold 41-29, and outscored visiting UNCP 19-2 in second chance points.

DeDe Cotton led all scorers with a