Parade brings holiday spirit to Lumberton

Members of a gymnastics team, above, flip down Elm Street during the Lumberton Christmas parade on Nov. 20. Santa Claus, right, waves to the crowd as he rides in Santa’s sleigh pulled by the nine reindeer at the finale of the Lumberton Christmas parade. The parade was approximately two hours long and included other groups, such as the Dare Band, church organizations, pageant winners, city council members and local businesses. The parade also included a procession of tractors ranging from antique models to contemporary models.

Lumberton Senior High school cheerleaders show their pirate pride during the Lumberton Christmas parade. The cheerleaders rode through the parade in a decorated pirate ship in support of the Lumberton High Pirates.

The Lumberton Senior High JROTC lead the Lumberton Christmas parade on Nov. 26.