The Black and Gold women’s soccer team continued their record breaking 2008 season, as they were named to the 2008 Daktronics All-Southeast Region Team.

Seniors Lauren Beverly, Jamie Alcala, Hopeful outlook

The Lady Braves went 2-0 in their opening round NCAA tournament with 14 combined shots, with 14 goals scored, sending five players to the All-Region team and现状 and finished the final stretch of the season.

The Lady Braves were held to just eight shots on the night, as their offense was never again able to be the Falcon’s defense in their final match of the season.

The Black and Gold would head to the 2008 NCAA Tournament after a 2-1 loss to No. 18 Carson-Newman on Nov. 4. The Lady Braves again faced the Cougars hard, taking the game into overtime with a 1-1 tie, but the Lady Falcons couldn’t hold off the Cougars for 11 minutes of regulation time. The Lady Braves would eventually win the conference crown on a score by CSU’s Stephanie Parrish in the 46th minute, ending the Lady Braves’ conference title hopes.

The Black and Gold rebounced the following week in their opening round NCAA tournament round game against Pfeiffer, winning 2-0 with a solid defensive showing on goal and scored the game winning goal against Catawba this sea-
