UNCP sets admit date
By Corey Stickland

At the first senate meeting of the New Year on Jan. 23, SGA President Hannah Simpson announced UNCP’s first new senators. New students are required to attend meetings of the senate, and Simpson said the new senators are “working with the planning and construction department to install a fire sprinkler system in Wellons Hall.” Swiney said.

“We will advertise and receive bids from contractors in February and expect to have the project completed by August. The bids are expected to come within the $100,000 budgeted for this project,” Swiney added.

In Belk Hall and North Hall this summer, we are planning to install equipment which will provide wireless internet service. Also in Belk and North Hall, we are planning to replace the numeric code door with a card access system,” he said.

Deaths:
UNCP mourns three well-knowns
By Wade Allen
管理和编辑

Dr. Rhoda Powers Collins

Dr. Rhoda Powers Collins, professor emeritus of UNCP, died on Jan. 8 of leukemia at New Hanover Regional Hospital.

Dr. Collins is survived by her husband, Richard Love; her son, Damien Shay Hammonds; her daughter, Maria Warren; her sister, Carolyn McLean; and her sister, Shellia Willoquish.

Damon Shay Hammonds

Damon Shay Hammonds, 7, died on Jan. 18 following a battle with cancer. He was the foster child of Lucy Hammonds, who is a resident administrator with Wellons Hall. He is survived by his mother, Carolyn White; his mother, Carolyn McLean; and his sister, Shelley Williams. Memorial contributions may be made to the Zimmer Cancer Center Foundation, checks to NHRMC Foundation, 2259 S. 17th St., Wilmington, N.C. 28401.

Angela McLean Love

Angela McLean Love, 35, died Jan. 6 at her home in Bladenboro. Love was Miss UNCP 1994 and represented the University in the Miss North Carolina pageant that year. She is survived by her husband, Richard Love; her son, Caleb White; her mother, Carolyn McLean; and her sister, Shellia Willloquish.

Memorials may be made to the Zimmer Cancer Center Foundation.

Damion Shay Hammonds

Damon Shay Hammonds, 7, died on Jan. 18 following a battle with cancer. He was the foster child of Lucy Hammonds, who is a resident administrator with wellons Hall. He is survived by his mother, Carolyn White; his mother, Carolyn McLean; and his sister, Shelley Williams. Memorial contributions may be made to the Zimmer Cancer Center Foundation, checks to NHRMC Foundation, 2259 S. 17th St., Wilmington, N.C. 28401.

UNCP sets admit date
By Corey Stickland

At the first senate meeting of the New Year on Jan. 23, SGA President Hannah Simpson announced UNCP’s first new senators. New students are required to attend meetings of the senate, and Simpson said the new senators are “working with the planning and construction department to install a fire sprinkler system in Wellons Hall.” Swiney said.

“We will advertise and receive bids from contractors in February and expect to have the project completed by August. The bids are expected to come within the $100,000 budgeted for this project,” Swiney added.

In Belk Hall and North Hall this summer, we are planning to install equipment which will provide wireless internet service. Also in Belk and North Hall, we are planning to replace the numeric code door with a card access system,” he said.

Deaths:
UNCP mourns three well-knowns
By Wade Allen
管理和编辑

Dr. Rhoda Powers Collins

Dr. Rhoda Powers Collins, professor emeritus of UNCP, died on Jan. 8 of leukemia at New Hanover Regional Hospital.

Dr. Collins is survived by her husband, Richard Love; her son, Damien Shay Hammonds; her daughter, Maria Warren; her sister, Carolyn McLean; and her sister, Shellia Willoquish.

Damon Shay Hammonds

Damon Shay Hammonds, 7, died on Jan. 18 following a battle with cancer. He was the foster child of Lucy Hammonds, who is a resident administrator with Wellons Hall. He is survived by his mother, Carolyn White; his mother, Carolyn McLean; and his sister, Shelley Williams. Memorial contributions may be made to the Zimmer Cancer Center Foundation, checks to NHRMC Foundation, 2259 S. 17th St., Wilmington, N.C. 28401.

Angela McLean Love

Angela McLean Love, 35, died Jan. 6 at her home in Bladenboro. Love was Miss UNCP 1994 and represented the University in the Miss North Carolina pageant that year. She is survived by her husband, Richard Love; her son, Caleb White; her mother, Carolyn McLean; and her sister, Shellia Willloquish.

Memorials may be made to the Zimmer Cancer Center Foundation.

Damion Shay Hammonds

Damon Shay Hammonds, 7, died on Jan. 18 following a battle with cancer. He was the foster child of Lucy Hammonds, who is a resident administrator with wellons Hall. He is survived by his mother, Carolyn White; his mother, Carolyn McLean; and his sister, Shelley Williams. Memorial contributions may be made to the Zimmer Cancer Center Foundation, checks to NHRMC Foundation, 2259 S. 17th St., Wilmington, N.C. 28401.