Springtime helps beautify campus

Flowers planted in front of Old Main adds some extra beauty to the campus.

Multi-colored pansies add color in front of the University Center.

Tall flowers decorate the sidewalk in front of Old Main and the faculty row parking.

Flowers planted in front of Old Main adds some extra beauty to the campus.

These flowers are located between the Mary Livermore Library and the water feature.

Brightly colored white and pink flowers along with green bushes surround Moore Hall.